CHRISTMAS CUSTOMS.

The 25th of December is the day or which the sun is near the most southern point in its apparent annual journey, and for so long as we have historical record,

The Hindoos on this day decorate their The Hindoos on this day decorate their homes with garlands of flowers and papers of gold and tinsel, and the custom of making presents to relatives and friends is universally observed.

The Egyptians recognized it by their festival in honor of the birth of their god

In China it is a general holiday, the shops are shut and the courts closed. No journey would under any circumstances be commenced on this day.

The Persians kept it as the birthday of Mithras the Mediator, a spirit of the sun, with ceremonies of uncommon splendor. splendor.

The old Romans held high festival in honor of Bacchus, rejoicing with him that the sun was about to return and revivify the vineyards. They designated the day the birthday of the invincible

There is no record that the birthday of Jesus the Christ, was observed till the second century. At the suggestion of Pope Telesphorus some of the Eastern

In the fourth century Pope Julius made an order assembling the chief the ologians of the time, for the purpose of examining all evidence hearing upon the date of the birth of Josus, that they should, if possible, fix the day, in order that its observance might be universal. After due deliberation they decided that it was on December the 25th. This decision was, at the time, believed by many of the fathers in the church to be erroneous, and they went so far as to assert.

Whear—Has a steady market but roneous, and they went so far as to assert that the examiners had been biased in their decision by the desire to please the their decision by the desire to please the public, to whom this day had already become to be a noted one. Popular feeling, however, sustained the connoil in their decision, which was finally unfversally accepted and commemorated, although it is now generally believed to be wrong. On the publication of the decision the Roman Church decreed and instituted special prayers to priests, to be said on that day, which are known as Christ masses.

Christ masses.

But we find another derivation for the ame. The old Saxons had a word name. The old Saxons had a word Mossa, by which they designated all days freed from labor, whether holidays or fast days. The holidays kept in re-membrance of the birth of Christ, were membrance of the birth of Christ, were Christ messa.

The spread of the Christian religion carried with it the observance of Christmas as a religious festival with which became connected other observances varying with the customs and habits of different nations.

With the Germans, Christmas is es-semed the "Children's Festival," and this country, any party that has neither principles nor leaders but what its own honest and intelligent members are ashamed to be identified with.

In the campaign just closed Ohio has played an important part. She has again furnished the nation a Chief Magistrate. She has endorsed his eminent services and spotless life by a largely increased Republican najority, and there remains but one act more that the Republicans of the State can now do to place her in political fore front of the Nation and intelligent members are ashamed the world-famous myth of 'Saint Nicholas," atias "Santa Claus," atias "Kris Kringle," the patron of Yale-tide and the friend of all proper boys and prettily behaved girls. Happily the reforms in the observance of the day, which began in Germany, reached and was copied in other portions of Enrope. Christmas is also now "Children's Day" in England and France. In toys and confections for the period the children are distinctly remembered in toys and confections for the period the children are distinctly remembered in Italy, and in America the Christmas Tree, the "stockings hung by the chimney with care," and the harmless merry games and innocent glee of childhood supplant much of the boisterons carousal which once tended to render the day rollicking and riotous. It was formerly the custom and is still the practice in Sherman.

The present General Assembly owes it to the State so do just what I have above indicated. Owes it to the Nation as well. This is no time to go back on old, honest, successful leaders, all of which John Sherman is and has been.

He should be elected, if for no other reason, simply because the Democrats don't want him elected. Anything white robe, and sholl in tall buckskins, "Knecht Rupert" went from house to "Knecht Rupert" went from house to house, was received by the parents with great ceremony, called for the children, and after the strictest investigation into their deserving, dispensed gifts accordingly. "Santa Claus," we all know, reports himself differently.

We are enjoying quite a revival of religion at the M. E. Church, under the ministry of Revs. Ebright and Giffith. Several accasions to the Church, some conversions, and still the good work goes on.

Several of our citizens were caught without fuel the last cold snap by depending on coal to be shipped by rail. We find it cheaper and safer to depend on our own mines, as heretofore.

Dr. Sisson, the Presidential elector for this district, returned home in danhealth and spirits after casting his vote for Garfield, and visiting him at his home in Mentor. The Dector greatly admires the simplicity and sociability of the President and wife.

Our merchants are doing a brisk business this winter. Indeed everybody is in good spirits and full of confidence since Garfield's election. Several of our little ones. Good vocal music and music by our "Cornet Band" will assist in making the feativities of the evening enjoyable.

Our boys have their sleighs all in readiness, awaiting patiently Prof. Vennor's eleven feet of snow.

The matrimonial boom appears to be increasing, and if reports be true the Rev. S. S. may prepare his brain for another squeezing operation, as his rhyming effusions have already made him quite popular among those wishing to be made happy.

As far as I can learn our citizens are unanimous in the cholee of John Sherman for U. S. Senator.
